POWERS

Not Only Accepts Edwards' Challenge for Joint Debate in Five Counties. But Challenges Edwards for Joint Debate in All of The Counties in The District.

Finley's Letter to Johnson Follows.

Hon. B. F. JOHNSON,
London, Ky.

My Dear Sir:—

Yours of the first inst. on behalf of Hon. D. C. Edwards challenging Hon. Caleb Powers, through me, for a series of joint discussions, to hand and noted.

Replying I wish first to congratulate you upon having at last fallen upon a plan that promises to secure an audience for Mr. Edwards. Had you attended Mr. Powers' speakings in other counties before he reached Laurel, as you did those in Laurel county, this plan would have suggested itself to you before it did. Neither Mr. Powers, nor his friends, feel under any obligation to provide Mr. Edwards with what he has been unable to secure for himself—a crowd to speak to. However, they are not only willing, but anxious to have a full discussion of the issues of this campaign, not only in Pulaski, Laurel and Whitley, Knox and Bell, but in every county in the District. Before your challenge was received, Mr. Powers' Campaign Committee had already planned and partially arranged for a speaking tour through all parts of the District. His dates are as follows:—

Harlan, Thursday August 18th, 1 o'clock p. m.

Whitesburg, Saturday August 20th, 1 o'clock p. m.

Hazard, Monday August 22nd, 1 p. m.

Hyden, Tuesday August 23rd, 1 o'clock p. m.

Manchester, Wednesday August 24th, 1 o'clock p. m.

McKee, Friday August 26th, 1 o'clock p. m.

Booneville, Saturday August 27th, 1 o'clock p. m.

Liberty, Monday August 29th, 1 o'clock p. m.

Columbia, Tuesday August 30th, 1 o'clock p. m.

Tompkinsville, Thursday Sept. 1st, 1 o'clock p. m.

Burkeville, Friday Sept. 2nd, 1 o'clock p. m.

Albany, Saturday Sept. 3rd, 1 o'clock p. m.

Monticello, Monday Sept. 5th, 1 o'clock p. m.

Somerset, Tuesday Sept. 6th, 1 o'clock p. m.

London, Thursday Sept. 8th, 1 o'clock p. m.

Williamsburg, Friday Sept. 9th, 1 o'clock p. m.

Barbourville, Saturday Sept. 10th, 1 o'clock p. m.

Pineville, Monday Sept. 12th, 1 o'clock p. m.

Middlesboro, Monday Sept. 12th, 7:30 o'clock p. m.

Corbin, Tuesday Sept. 13th, 7:30 o'clock p. m.

The above speakings, which reaches every county in the District, are all that Mr. Powers has the physical strength to make on this speaking tour in the limited time before September 15th, and all that Mr. Edwards must attempt to make, if this proposition is accepted.

Should Mr. Edwards desire to meet Mr. Powers at all of the above appointments, and it is but fair that he should meet him at all, if he meets him at any, he will be accorded an equal division of time, and a fair opportunity to present his claims.

He is cordially invited to accompany Mr. Powers on this tour, and to discuss the issues of this contest before the Republican voters of the entire District. There can be no reason why these joint discussions should be confined to the five counties you have named in your challenge, for the voters in the other fourteen counties are equally entitled to hear Mr. Edwards and Mr. Powers discuss the issues involved in this campaign.

Should Mr. Edwards desire to meet Mr. Powers at the speaking dates above named, and should you desire to meet me to arrange any further details about same, I will gladly confer with you.

I am, very truly yours,
CHAS. FINLEY, Chm.

THE MOUNTAIN ADVOCATE,
Barbourville, Ky.

D. C. Edwards, a Laurel county sawmill man, I have heard a few people say, was a candidate for Congress. He was here on last Thursday and tried to make a speech in the school house to about 15 voters and 35 school boys and girls; but, as I understand, the only thing he did was to rob the school children out of about two hours time as you well know it isn't any wonder that he should rob little boys and girls, when he undertook to rob Caleb Powers of his liberty and keep him in jail for a charge he was not guilty of in order that he might remain in Congress.

Are we, as Republicans going to vote for a man of this kind, when we were all doing our best to get Caleb Powers's liberty which D. C. Edwards was opposing.

Think of this carefully by September 15th.

Wm. BARGO.

Liberty, Ky., Aug. 1st, 1910.

THE MOUNTAIN ADVOCATE,
Barbourville, Ky.

I was at a religious gathering in South Liberty Precinct No. 2. There were many of the best men present. While my feelings was for Powers, I was very anxious to know how the people felt toward Mr. Powers. So I put the question: "What do you all think of Powers?" One arose and said: "I think enough of him to vote for him." And the all arose with one acclamation declared for Powers—no one for Edwards.

We have all been Edwards' friends in time past, but behold, the old things pass away and new things appear and take the place of Mr. Edwards by an overwhelming majority.

Mr. Edwards may send his preachers here, and may tell all kinds of things to the man we are going to send to Congress, and such campaign stuff will have no effect upon the strength of Mr. Powers.

The people here are going to give Mr. Powers their vote on Sept. 15, and expect with confidence to vote for him in November.

Wm. THOMPSON.

J. C. Cloyd Nails Campaign Lie

Manchester, Ky., Aug. 4th, 1910.

The writer says that he has just been in the office of the Clay County Clarion and that the Editor read to him an article in which I was credited with making the statement that if Caleb Powers was elected to Congress that I would have him to cut down the old soldiers' pensions. I wish to say that I did not make the above statement or any statements that are contained in the article above referred to and the writer of that article whoever he is, is a liar of the blackest type and if he will come out of the brush and meet me I will tell him so.

I wish to repeat just what I did say, and how it was said. Hon. Wm. Lewis, of London, John Webb, S. G. Reid, J. K. Keeler, of Manchester, and two gentlemen from Louisville, were all sitting on the porch of the Hotel of John Webb and were cracking jokes about the election. J. K. Keeler, an old soldier and a man whom I take to be my friend, at least I am his and he being a strong supporter of Edwards, in order to joke him I said to him: "Mr. Keeler, you had better get over on Powers' side, because if you don't I will have your pension reduced." It was said in a joke, understood by every member of the crowd present to be a joke, and before the conversation closed I said to Keeler: That if Powers was elected he could have no better friend in Congress than him, because Powers was a friend to the soldiers. I was a soldier and I am a pensioner and would not be for anyone who is not a friend to the soldiers, and I know that Powers is. The writer of the article in the Clarion knows that he has written a wilful and malicious lie and this merely shows to what depths of corruption some of the lower type of Edwards' followers will stoop.

D. C. Edwards in Whitley.

Jellico, Tenn., Aug. 8th, 1910.

EDITOR MOUNTAIN ADVOCATE.

Last week the Honorable D. C. Edwards invaded Whitley county and made sixteen speeches. His audiences were very small at every place. Not more than fifty heard him at any appointment, and frequently less than a dozen extended him a royal welcome. At South America, he had sixteen to hear him, fifteen being Republicans and one Democrat and of the fifteen Republicans twelve were for Powers.

At Jellico he was greeted by fifteen—about all the votes he will get at this place. He made a flattering speech to the school children at Lot. Only five voters in this district heard him—two of these were for Powers. Edwards was transporting his audience with him. He with his few disciples arrived on schedule time. They found the little city quiet and the streets destitute of people. He asked the few people present if it "wasn't funny how the people were losing interest in political speakings."

About two months ago Caleb Powers made a speech to a crowd of house of voters who are yet enthusiastically supporting him in his race. Don't you think they have lost interest mighty quick?

Mr. Edwards, after denouncing Charles Finley and other men who are supporting Powers. His speeches boiled down, were as follows:—

1. Caleb Powers ought not to run for Congress because his election would knock Edwards out of seven-thousand five-hundred dollars a year, and I think if Powers just understood how Mr. Edwards feels about this matter—how certain he feels he will lose his present job—he would have a little sympathy for his opponent and not try to carry every one of the counties in the district.

2. That the election of Powers would clog the wheels of legislation.

3. That Powers is rich and did not need the money the office pays. But he failed to tell the few people who did hear him that Mr. Edwards had made a fortune off the people of the Mountains since coming from Kansas.

4. That Nicholas Longworth was endorsing Edwards.

5. That Powers could make plenty of money lecturing and making speeches. He said that if he himself had to be defeated, that he would be up against it, as he never was much of a speaker and since he had been in Congress he had lost what practice he formerly possessed. He said he had not spoken except to empty benches in five years. He did not break his former record while he was in Whitley county. The benches were nearly all empty.

6. He said if the people would elect him to Congress this time and then elect him Governor, he would not be a candidate again for Congress.

Do you think we will have to hire him to quit running for Congress the rest of his life? Don't you think we can get him to quit without paying such a price as he asks? I believe that it is too much. He said that if Powers was elected to Congress, that Caleb Powers would be the next Governor of Kentucky, a thing he did not want to happen.

Edwards has spoken to five or six hundred of the voters of this county, while Powers has spoken to more than three thousand.

I do not know how to guess at the vote now. Three months ago I put Powers' majority at not less five hundred to six hundred; now I think it safe to say that Powers will get not less than one thousand and possibly two thousand majority.

I frequently hear of several precincts where it is impossible to get a dozen votes for Edwards. In fact he will not carry more than three precincts out of the twenty-nine.

Now what do you say about Edwards getting a thousand majority here?

Very truly,
R. N. Baldwin.

POWERS AT WILTON
MET BY BRASS BAND.

Wilton, Ky., August 5, 1910.

The greatest number of Republicans that ever assembled here, joined in the applause that greeted Hon. Caleb Powers, when he spoke here Thursday evening in the interest of his candidacy for Republican nomination for Congress, in an address which was as able a deliverance as ever fell from the lips of any Kentuckian.

He defended the Mountain people's cause and in lucid language convinced his audience that the Eleventh District was bound to rebuke Don C. Edwards and his small crowd of men that combined with the Democrats in order to pass Edwards nomination with a disregard for rights of all other aspirants and other members of the Republican party.

Mr. Power's remarks kept the people in an enthusiastic attitude and it is safe to say that he (Powers) will get the largest vote ever given in a candidate for Congress in this part of the country.

The Bertha Brass Band furnished music for the occasion and all had a lively time.

APPIDAVIT

The affiants Will Davis, Leonard Davis, and Ben Davis, state that they are citizens and residents of Knox county Kentucky and they are each personally acquainted with M. G. Hignite, of Barbourville, Knox County Kentucky, a Deputy Collector under J. Sherman Cooper and that the said Hignite in the Barber Shop of K. F. Davis in the city of Barbourville, Knox County, Kentucky, and on Thursday August 4th, 1910, made the following statement relative to the Congressional race in the Eleventh District.

That "checks were pouring into the Campaign headquarters of D. C. Edwards at London every day from Democrats, That the Democrats from all over the State are contributing more money to Edwards' campaign fund than the Republicans did to Powers when he was in jail. That they meaning the Edwards people had the committee in thirteen counties of the Eleventh Congressional District and that in these thirteen counties the Democrats would vote in the Republican Primary and that they would vote for D. C. Edwards."

Affiants says that the forging statements are true.

Knox County Fair.

The Advocate acknowledges receipt of Complimentary Season ticket for the Advocate man and wife to attend the Knox County Fair, which opens August 31st and continues three days. The management is endeavoring to make this a banner year, and if it should fail the fault will not be in the Secretary J. Frank Hawn, who has labored unceasingly to make it a success.

Knox County Farmers Institute.

M. C. Rankin, Commissioner of Agriculture, requests us to announce that the County Farmers Institute will be held in Barbourville, on Sept. 9th and 10th, 1910. Farmers are urged to attend these two days meetings. That will lend the betterment of the farmers along progressive agricultural lines.

Quarterly Meeting.

The fourth quarterly meeting and quarterly conference of the First Methodist Church will be held in Barbourville on Monday night Aug. 15. Every one is cordially invited to attend this service.

The fourth quarterly meeting on Barbourville circuit will be held at Bingham's Chapel at 2:00 o'clock p. m. on Wednesday August 17, and continue until Thursday.

Don't forget these dates and be sure to be on hand.

District Supt.

To Clean Parasols

Do not remove the cover from the frame to laundry your parasol. Instead, open it out and wash the covering thoroughly, using brush, cool water and some good white soap. After rinsing set it in the sun to dry, if the material is white; in the shade, if the material will fade. The wires will not rust, and your parasol will be found beautifully clean and dainty. It is well to wash it again in this manner in the fall, and not put it away in a soiled condition. Wrap in tissue paper, then in newspaper.—Womans Home Companion.

A Quiet Wedding.

Last Thursday evening at 8:00 o'clock, in the presence of a small crowd at the home of the brides brother Mr. J. A. Hunter, Miss Maggie Hunter, of Flat Lick, and Mr. Clark Mills, of Hammons, Ky., were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, the Rev. J. G. Reynolds officiating. Mr. Mills is a prosperous farmer and is well liked by all who know him. The bride is a well known young woman and her many friends regret to give her up as she will be missed by many.

The best wishes of the entire community goes out to them for their future success.

DEATHS.

SMITH.

William E. Smith died at his home on Richland creek, two miles North of town last Wednesday morning, of tuberculosis, after an illness covering several months.

Mr. Smith was one of the strongest type of manhood to be found in Kentucky prior to his illness which developed into consumption.

He was an oil well driller and exposed himself in all kinds of weather, a deep cold set up and he neglected it until the germs of the disease had fastened upon him.

He was a member of the I. O. O. F. fraternity, of this city, and that order had charge of the funeral services which was conducted yesterday.

He leaves a wife and some small children besides a mother, brother and sister, and a wide circle of friends to mourn their loss.

PARKS.

Mrs. Lizzie Parks, daughter of Mr. Alex. Parks, of Madison County, and a sister to Mrs. L. C. Miller and Mrs. J. S. Miller of this city and a niece to John A. and James D. Black of John A. Black and James D. Black of John A. Black a few days ago, died at the Infirmary at Richmond this week as a result of the injury. Her leg was broken and she was otherwise bruised and injured and blood poison set up causing her death.

SCALF.

Mrs. Lee Scalf died at her home in New Smyrna, Fla., last Tuesday of Typhoid fever after an illness of only a few days. Mr. Scalf left here a few months ago to make his home in the Southland and located in New Smyrna on the Atlantic Coast side of the State. The news of this death comes as a shock to her friends here.

The remains will arrive here this (Friday) morning for interment in the local cemetery.

Delicious Recipe.

Knickerbocker Pudding

"Mix one and one half cups of orange juice and one fourth of a cup of lemon juice and sweeten to taste with granulated sugar," says Fannie Merritt Farmer. "Turn mixture into a brick mold. Whip one pint of heavy cream until stiff and add one half cupful of powdered sugar, one half tablespoonful of vanilla and two thirds of a cupful of chopped walnutmeat. Pour cream mixture over fruit mixture to overflow molds. Cover with buttered paper (buttered side up) fit on cover, pack in salt and ice, and let stand three hours. There will be two distinct and delicious flavors."

Elegant Dinner, High Noon.

Mrs. Frank Hawn was the hostess to a most elegant dinner, given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. McClung, of Elys. The dining room was beautifully decorated and an elegant dinner served for twelve in the music room. Master Lewis and his little guests were served after dinner.

The guests enjoyed a musical treat greatly enjoyed by all the guests.

Those present were, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. McClung, Judge and Mrs. F. D. Sampson, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lentz, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Barrer, Misses Nora and Nel Barrer, Mr. Reid, and Miss Margaret Sampson.

Revival at Bingham's Chapel.

Services begins Aug. 13, 1910. Rev. T. B. Stratton will preach Aug. 17, at 2 o'clock, and hold the Quarterly Conference and also preach at night.

You are most cordially invited. Rev. A. N. Perkins, Pastor.

The Official Organ of the Republican Party in Knox County.

We are authorized to announce

of Barbourville, Knox County, Kentucky, as a Candidate for Congress in the 11th Congressional District of Kentucky, subject to the Republican Primary to be held September 15, 1910.

S. B. Rees, Ex-Sheriff of Knox County has seen cause to take the Advocate to task because it has been supporting a native Knox county citizen for Congress instead of supporting D. C. Edwards and after using almost two columns of space in Edwards' Echo says that because the Advocate is for Powers he will be defeated.

He recites the fact that the Advocate has always opposed Edwards and that he has always been elected; that he was for Fairbanks and he was defeated, etc.

Well, suppose that all of these statements were true. A greater Kentuckian than we once said "I would rather be right than be President." We believe then that we are right and we think so yet.

We believe that had Charles W. Fairbanks been elected President, we would not have suffered the panic in finances that we have endured from the time President Taft was elected.

But be that as it may, we have always been loyal and supported the nominee of the party whether we were for him before the nomination was made. Can you, Bro. Rees, say as much for yourself?

But, who is this man S. B. Rees, that takes us so severely to task? Is he the same S. B. Rees, whom Mr. Edwards had appointed as a Census Enumerator in Knox county this year without his having stood an examination as required by law, and who, after he had gone over his territory and made out what he considered his report, and the said report was forwarded to the District Enumerator he refused to accept it and the books were returned here and one W. F. Parker spent some two or three weeks, working upon the report to get it in shape to pass the officials.

This little appointment seems to have so completely turned the head of our distinguished ex-Sheriff until he seems to know nothing now but Edwards.

It is true that we were not in Knox county at the time that Higginite was appointed Superintendent of Schools, but we have it from such men as A. J. Croley and W. R. Lay, our County Attorney, that they went to Judge J. T. Wyatt and asked for the appointment of W. R. Lay, as Superintendent of Schools and they were told then and there by Judge Wyatt that he could not make the appointment as he was under promise to appoint M. G. Higginite, that Caleb Powers had requested his appointment and he could not refuse it.

Powers will have a safe majority in the District however, no matter if both ex-Sheriff Rees and M. G. Higginite are opposing his nomination.

The honest and observing friends of D. C. Edwards all over the District, are admitting that unless there is a change in the tide, that Mr. Edwards will be swept down in an overwhelming defeat. They have hoped in vain to see the Powers boom bust, but day by day they witness to their sorrow, the Powers sentiment getting stronger; the Powers vote getting larger, and the certainty of Powers' victory is more evident as the 15th of September rolls around.

One by one, the predictions of Edwards' henchmen go a glimmering. They said for instance when Powers was making speeches, and before Edwards got home from Congress, that when Edwards got home and got in the harness that things would change around and that Powers' little boom would burst into a bubble. False prophets, they have proven themselves to be. Tremendous crowd of enthusiastic people still flock to hear Caleb Powers, while Edwards' crowds are small and indifferent, unless Democrats. At Rad Creek, in Leslie County, no one turned out to hear Edwards speak. Not a soul honored him with his presence at Galloway, in Bell County; three Democrats were all that graced the occasion at Morrowhine in Leslie County. Only 12 voters heard Edwards at the county seat of Jackson County, (Jim McOr's County); while only 9 turned out to hear Edwards at Artemus in Knox County. And, while Edwards was only having 9 hearers in Knox County, (Powers' County), Powers was addressing big crowds in Edwards' County, and as a proof of this a Powers Republican club of 90 members was formed at Powers' speaking place at Cross Roads; the other day a Powers club of 91 at McWhorter; a club of 87 at Lilly; a club of 131 voters at Bush and 103 at Camp Ground, and all these in the home County of D. C. Edwards.

(From London Sentinel, June 23.)

Edwards refused to sign the petition for Caleb Powers, whom he had always claimed to be a persecuted political prisoner. But we remember when a certain man that had come to London about the same time Edwards came from Kansas, was being tried for the murder of a Mountain girl, whose dying statement was that this man had seduced her under promise of marriage and performed an abortion upon her.—when this man sought freedom, Mr. Edwards gladly wrote "in confidence" to the Governor, asking that he be pardoned. This shows clearly how much this man Edwards thinks of the Mountain People.

Resolutions Adopted by State Central Committee

"Be it resolved, that we, the Republican State Central Committee, recommend that the Eleventh Congressional District Committee be called together on July 16, 1910, instead of August 27, 1910, and that said Committee adopt as the qualifications of voters in the primary election to be held on September 15, 1910, that no one be permitted to vote in said primary election except those who have heretofore supported the National and State Republican tickets and who are known Republicans, or will be at the November election, 1910."

WILL GIVE CASH PRIZES OF $30,000

"SPECIALS" WILL SWELL KENTUCKY STATE FAIR PREMIUM LIST BY MANY THOUSANDS.

PREPARATIONS RAPIDLY PUSHED

Everything Points to Record Breaking Exhibition and Attendance for Big Show of 1910.

With an investment of approximately $300,000 in buildings and grounds and a record of seven successive annual exhibitions before it, the Kentucky State Fair will begin in Louisville on September 12 and continue throughout the week. The bright promise is given that the turnstiles will click this year on one of the greatest state fairs in America. Hard and unceasing work on the part of the board of managers, the fair officials and employees, for many weeks past is rapidly bringing to completion all plans and arrangements for the exhibition.

While no new buildings have been erected since last year's fair, there will be ample accommodations for exhibitors and visitors. Nature has worked wonders in the beautiful 150-acre plot occupied as a fair site, and the Kentucky show is rapidly gaining distinction as the most beautiful state fair in America. Under the landscape gardener's care the grounds have been adorned with shrubs, new walks and avenues have been laid out, and the trees planted when the site was first selected have grown to shade producing proportions. The system of illumination has been extended so that every nook and corner of the grounds will be brilliantly lighted each night of the show week. Those who have watched the progress of work on this year's exhibition venture the opinion that the attendance, which last year reached high-water mark, will this year be increased by thousands.

Cash prizes aggregating about $30,000 have been hung up in premiums for the 1910 fair. In many instances the prizes have been increased over former years, and many additional classifications have been made. More attractive than ever will be the "special prizes," which this year will aggregate between five and ten thousand dollars.

Aside from the thousands of dollars received in cash by exhibitors there comes in yet greater prize—the distinction of an award from the Kentucky State Fair. The sentimental and exploiting value of such an award has now grown until it is one of the most coveted prizes sought for by those who may be described as professional exhibitors in the country's largest art collections. It is not possible to put an estimate on the prestige and distinction that accompany a prize from the state fair of a commonwealth recognized as the head of the horse world, as one of the foremost live stock states, and as an agricultural community with few superior in the Union.

As heretofore, excursion rates from a territory within a radius of 100 miles of Louisville will prevail throughout the entire fair period. Every local arrangement has been made for the quick and safe handling of the crowds and ample accommodations at reasonable rates are assured to all visitors to Louisville during the state fair week.

NATIELLO'S GREAT BAND.

Kentucky State Fair Management Announces Important Engagement for This Year's Show.

St. Francis Natello's famous band has been engaged for the Kentucky State Fair of 1910, and will be heard in two grand concerts each day. There are some sixty bands in the entire country, and the band is ranked among the most successful in America. Free concerts will be given in a band stand near the pavilion each afternoon and night, and Natello and his musicians will also be heard during the horse show and bandstand performances. In addition, two bands have been engaged to provide music for the races and tender concert programs during each afternoon and evening.

As a courtesy to the thousands of visitors to the state fair grounds, on the day preceding the opening of the fair, the state fair management has arranged for two grand concerts on Sunday afternoon and evening, September 11. Last year something like 10,000 persons visited the fair grounds on the Sunday immediately before the opening of the fair. This fact led the management to place a concert with St. Francis Natello for two grand concerts on Sunday. Hundreds of visitors from out in the state reach Louisville on Saturday and Sunday before the opening of the fair, and they will have the advantage of this additional entertainment.

Excursion rates will prevail on all railroad and steamboat lines entering Louisville during the week of the Kentucky State Fair, September 12-17. The denota are located on street car line giving rapid transit to and from the State Fair grounds. Louisville's hotels and boarding houses will be ready to receive the thousands of emergency, and visitors will find that an excursion to the state's metropolis can be easily and inexpensively made.

BUSINESS AND PLEASURE

Trip to Kentucky State Fair Can be Made at Small Expense.

Those who desire to visit the Kentucky State Fair at Louisville, September 12-17, can have a great pleasure trip for very little money if they so desire. The low railroad rates prevailing of one fare the round trip, together with the low cost of admission to the fair and the numerous boarding houses in Louisville that furnish accommodations from $1 a day up enable one to be comfortable and at the same time attend this state institution at a very small outlay. Of course, one can always find an opportunity to spend money if he so desires, but there are a great many people who are glad to have a chance to combine business and pleasure at a reasonable cost. This the state fair week furnishes at Louisville.

WEEK WELL DIVIDED

Special Days for All At Kentucky State Fair.

Experienced People Have Been Placed in Charge of Special Days for Each Day and Night.

Busy hours and minutes are ahead of visitors to the Kentucky State Fair of 1910, which will begin in Louisville on the morning of September 12. The largest scores of organizations have been enlisted, and every day and every night has been dedicated to some particular group, with everybody invited all the time.

Fred W. Keiser, of Louisville, is general chairman on special days, and A. B. Lipscomb, secretary of the Louisville Commercial club, general chairman on special nights. As heretofore, Monday, the first day, has been set aside for the school children of Kentucky. The youngsters are expected to turn out by the thousands, and a guarantee of one full day of happiness will go along with each school child's ticket sold. Prof. E. H. Mark, superintendent of Louisville public schools, is chairman of school children's day.

Tuesday, September 13, will be farmers' day, with W. T. Chilton, of Campbellsville, as chairman. Formal sessions will be held on that day by many of the organizations made up of farmers.

Wednesday, September 14, will be Louisville day, with W. O. Head, mayor of the city, as chairman. It is expected this will be one of the banner days of the fair from an attendance standpoint.

Thursday, September 15, this will also be press day, and good roads day, with A. D. Miller, of Richmond, president of the Kentucky Press association, acting as chairman, and H. A. Somers, of Elizabethtown, vice chairman.

Friday, September 16, has been especially dedicated to Kentucky neighbors and will be known as Southern Indiana and traveling men's day. Adam Helmberger, of New Albany, is chairman, and D. O. Talcott, of Louisville, vice chairman.

Saturday, September 17, has been put down as everybody's day, with everybody chairman.

A testimonial to the great work being accomplished by Kentucky club women is evidenced in the selection of the first night of the fair as women's organizations' night. Mrs. Chas. P. Weaver, of Louisville, is chairman. German-American night will be observed on Tuesday, with Louis Seebach, of Louisville, chairman, and the Irish-American citizens of Kentucky will be the crowd guests of the fair on Wednesday night. E. J. McWhorter, of Louisville, is chairman for that evening.

General night will close the fourth day of the fair Thursday. Under the chairmanship of R. W. Brown, of Louisville, a monster committee is expected to bring out one of the largest contingents of fraternal society members ever seen in the Ohio valley. Friday evening, September 16, has been set aside as commercial organizations' night, with Dr. W. B. Gessner, of Louisville, chairman. Every night will close the fair week, with E. DeLand, of Louisville, being chairman of the evening.

LIVE STOCK PARADE

All Prize Winners to be Seen at One Time at Kentucky State Fair.

No single event of the Kentucky State Fair, September 12-17, will attract more attention than the great live stock parade. This will take place at 2 p. m. Friday, September 16, and will be made up of first prize winners in the various classes during the week of the fair. The judging will be over then and the exhibition, free and second ribbons tied, and the admiring public will have an opportunity to witness the parade of the champions in every class. This contractor got results.

Some years ago a contractor building a railroad in a warm climate was troubled a great deal by sickness among the laborers.

He turned his attention at once to their food and found that they were getting full rations of meat and were drinking water from a stream near by.

He issued orders to cut down the amount of meat and to increase greatly the quantity of Quaker Oats fed to the men.

He also boiled Quaker Oats and mixed the thin oatmeal water with their drinking water. Almost instantly all signs of stomach disorders passed and his men showed a decided improvement in strength and spirits. This contractor had experience that taught him the great value of good oatmeal.

The cost was small; 10c for regular size packages; it is also packed in hermetically sealed tins for hot climates.

CALEB POWERS

His Tour Through Laurel County a Triumphant Success.

GETS GREAT OVATION AT MCWHORTER.

The greatest number of Republicans that ever assembled here joined in the applause that greeted Hon. Caleb Powers when he spoke here last Thursday evening in the interest of his candidacy for the Republican nomination for Congress. In an address, which was as noble a deliverance as ever fell from the lips of a Kentuckian. He defended the Mountain people's cause and in lucid language, convinced his audience that the Eleventh District was bound to rebuke Don C. Edwards and his small group of men that combined with the Democrats in order to push Edwards' nomination with a ruthless disregard for the rights of all other aspirants, and of all other members of the Republican party. Mr. Powers' remarks kept the people in an enthusiastic attitude and it is safe to say that Powers will get the largest vote ever given a candidate for Congress in this part of the county.

The combined efforts of the Edwards crowd and the Democrats and the Edwards press and the Democratic news papers to slander and libel Caleb Powers, has reduced Mr. Edwards following and now there seems no doubt in the minds of the people about Caleb Powers carrying Laurel County. All the shafts of envy, malice and libel that have been hurled at him by Edwards and his henchmen now lay harmlessly broken at his feet. That Caleb Powers is innocent and endured with a martyr's patience all the caperees of an arrogant foe that essayed to overthrow the rights and the liberties of the mountain people, every Republican worthy of the name is bound to admit. And now has come to this, that we men of Laurel county the home of Vincent Boregno who so earnestly and eloquently pleaded the mountain people's cause before the tribunal of eternal justice and paid to Caleb Powers the same tribute that a grateful people have paid to the grave of Robert Emmet, turn traitor and truthlessly slaughter the aspirations of one of the truest Republicans of Kentucky.

Mr. Powers left it clear to the people that Edwards and his henchmen's only hope to defeat him was by trickery and down right falsehood. He showed up Mr. Edwards inconsistency and proved that he has never during his five years in Congress secured any legislation affecting the State or Nation or had any bill passed for general good of the masses of the Eleventh Congressional District.

He produced record evidence to substantiate that he never got rich while in prison and that he never charged the Johnson County Republicans $500 for making a political speech. When he referred to the statement made by James H. Moore he was interrupted by cries of "hush!" "don't mention that man." Mr. Powers obeyed the people and dropped Moore out of his arguments. A Caleb Powers Republican Club of more than 100 was organized.

Lloyd Haff. SPEAKING AT BRUSH PRECINCT, IN LAUREL COUNTY. Marydel, Ky., July 30, 1910. On the night of 29th Inst by Hon.

Caleb Powers was received with great enthusiasm and the large crowd was in humor, when Mr. Powers rose to address it in a brilliant stirring address which lasted for one hour.

There could not more than three-fourths of the people get in the house and the remainder standing out side and listened to the Eleventh District next Congressman. After the speaking a Powers club was organized with 131 good substantial citizens enrolled as members. Powers will not lose 15 votes in Brush Precinct. Powers will carry Laurel county by 1000 majority, he will also carry Edwards' home precinct.

M. Gregory.

REPUBLICANS CHEER CALEB POWERS. McWhorter, Ky., July 28, 1910.

The greatest crowd that ever attended a political speaking at McWhorter cheered Hon. Caleb Powers when he spoke here last Thursday evening in the interest of his candidacy for Republican nomination for Congress. Of more than 125 Republicans present there was not more than a dozen for Edwards. John S. Bailey Edwards' press bureau manager was here to take reports and when Powers got through with him what report did he take back to London? We don't believe that John S. will ever follow Caleb Powers again.

When Powers mentioned the name of James H. Moore the entire audience asked him not to mention this man for he was unworthy of consideration. A Caleb Powers Republican club was organized with over 100 members. After speaking was over Bailey remarked "Boys they are all for Powers here". In the three adjoining precincts here we could not much more than get a jury of 12 men that are for Edwards.

That Caleb Powers will carry Laurel county no man doubts.

A Republican.

Viva, Ky., July 28, 1910 Hon. Caleb Powers spoke here Wednesday night July 27, to one of the largest and most enthusiastic crowds ever assembled at this place to hear a political speech. Mr. Powers spoke for about two hours, presented his claims in a very forcible manner, being applauded frequently. He spoke at Oakley at 10 o'clock a. m. where a large crowd was waiting to see and hear him. The crowd at Oakley were near all for Powers. They organized a Powers club with 95 members. Mr. B. F. Johnson, Chairman of Edwards' Campaign committee was there he said that the tide had turned for Powers.

Poor Ben's feathers wilted down when Powers got through speaking he had nothing to say for Edwards' cause. We organized a Powers club at Viva with 38 members.

On 15th of September we will bury Big Don with his face downward, we will heap the ballots on him so deep that he will never scratch out with this old world stands.

A true blue Republican for Powers. Yours truly, Arthur Johnson.

Bernstadt, Ky. July 26, 1910 The Advocate, Barbourville, Ky.

The speech made at the Swiss Colony, Laurel county, was probably the greatest effort made here.

The house was crowded and fully half the people had to remain on the outside. Mr. Powers proved by records, facts and figures that Mr. Edwards was trying to make his race by deceiving the people. Mr. Powers proved that he came out of jail in debt and his health gone. He said he was not abusing Mr. Edwards as Mr. Edwards was doing him.

When Mr. Powers said I must close for fear I weary you, voices rang out, "go on! go on! we are not tired." In all the crowd present only six were for Edwards five old soldiers were present four of whom were for Powers.

Every lady present was for Powers. Mr. A. R. Dyche suggested the organization of a Powers club and appointed three to take the names, but names came so fast other men had to be employed. Beyond any doubt Powers will have a land-slide here. The people are willing to give Mr. Edwards credit for all he has done, but they are for Powers for Congress.

Yours truly,

F. M. Jones.

Bush, Ky., July 29, 1910.

The Hon. Caleb Powers spoke here to a good crowd, 150 or 200 people coming out to hear him in a down-pour of rain. Had it been pleasant he would have had 500 or more to hear him.

After the speaking a Powers club of 131 members was organized.

Though this is in eight or nine miles of Mr. Edwards' home, but it seems as all are for him. It seems as if he will carry Laurel by 500.

Resp.

JACKSON COUNTY. GREAT REJOICING AMONG THE EDWARDS PEOPLE.

Last Monday being county court day in McKee there was quite a large crowd gathered in from different parts of the county.

This brought together in all including the 4 or 5 living in McKee about 1 dozen Edwards men, an unusually large crowd of Edwards friends, while there were some 300 or more Powers men in town.

This being the largest crowd of Edwards followers that have yet been gotten to together on any occasion in Jackson county and when joined by a few of their Democratic allies, and putting their heads together for a while and listening to each other talk, and listening to the wise counsel of their Democratic friends and seeing the crowd of them selves so much larger than usual they naturally took courage and became very enthusiastic and as a result a period of great rejoicing followed in the Edwards camp. They naturally felt under such circumstances like Mr. Edwards had some home or other made great gains, though they could not tell just how or why.

But the Powers men being possessed of that great liberality of thought, and generally good feeling toward his fellow man that attaches to almost all true Republicans every where, and are willing to see the Edwards men and their Democratic allies have their good feeling and periods of rejoicing while they may, such as would naturally follow, after so large a gathering as this one was; for the time is surely not far distant, and not later than the 15th day of Sept. next when their enthusiasm will be running at a very low ebb, and their joys will all cease, and their sun of hope will forever refuse to shine upon them and their democratic allies and Edwards, their man, will be buried so deep beneath the great flood of Powers ballots that will pour down upon them on that good day which will roll up majorities that will look like mountains to them with old Jackson county in line with her thousand or twelve hundred majority for Powers, that they will never be able to rejoice again, though they could view the crowd of Edwards men times as large as the one that assembled in McKee on last county court day.

A Jackson County Republican.

MONROE COUNTY HEARD FROM.

Sharpe on Cold Trail; Cancels Appointments and Shakes Dust From His Feet.

James N. Sharpe, Attorney and Representative of twenty-nine gigantic mountain corporations, owning and controlling millions of dollars worth of coal and mineral lands in the mountain counties of this district and also the spokesman of one of the greatest political machines ever to exist in the Eleventh district, addressed the voters at Meshack last Thursday in the interest of the candidacy of D. C. Edwards. This point is the Democratic stronghold in the county. About 40 Republicans and 60 Democrats voters were present. Out of the 40 Republicans 35 of them were for Powers, and every Democrat was for Edward. Every mark of approval of Sharpe's statements was initiated, prompted and carried on by the democrats.

At 3 o'clock in the afternoon this same Corporation lawyer followed, pursued and encouraged by the leaders of the Democrats who had heard his speech at Meshack reached McMurttry's store, four miles east of Tompkinsville. There he addressed a crowd of 38 voters—16 republicans and 22 democrats. The editor of the News attended this speaking and upon arrival there, a very prominent Democrat and enthusiastic Edwards supporter, notified Mr. Sharpe that the editor was on the grounds and asked Sharpe to give him a good flying on his speech. Being a corporation lawyer and trying to tread as light as a fox, he abstained from the task of skinning the editor and indulged in a long laudation of Edwards' greatness as a member of Congress. In the outset, Mr. Sharpe said that speacmaking was a very dangerous thing and he proved this point more clearly than any other point attempted in his speech. He said that Mr. Powers and his friends were kicking because of the late primary and that they should not antagonize the people in this way, because the people fixed the date of the holding so as to give time to investigate the character of the candidates. This was certainly a very startling statement falling from the lips of this great Corporation lawyer and chief advisor and representative of Don C. Edwards, from the simple fact that is well known and understood by the Republican voters of the district that the people had no voice whatever in fixing the date of the primary for September. The fixing of the primary was done solely by the partisan district committee and that, too, without consulting anyone except Mr. Edwards and his friends. Why didn't Mr. Sharpe, if he was sincere in this statement, tell the people the whole truth regarding the calling of the primary and not try to cover up the attempted fraud upon the part of the committee in making the call?

Why did he not tell his audience that the Republicans of this district, feeling the sting of the attempted rape of their rights and privileges, rose up in their might and though Mr. Powers and his friends appealed to the State Central Committee from the outrageous and unheard of ruling of the partisan Edwards district committee which provided for a wide open primary in which democrats would be permitted to vote for Edwards on the same equality as a true Republican?

Mr. Sharpe knew of this attempted fraud upon the part of the Edwards committee, he knew that the Republicans in the district who wanted to see fair play and an old time Republican primary held appealed to the State Central Committee and that committee held up the district committee in its fraudulent attempt but still with the artfulness of a Corporation lawyer Mr. Sharpe dodged a discussion of this point.

Friday morning Mr. Sharpe appeared at Ganalei and there addressed about 40 Republican voters, where two weeks ago Mr. Powers addressed about 400 people. We learn from a reliable source that 38 of his hearers were for Powers and two for Edwards.

Mr. Sharpe was next to speak at White Oak Ridge, Flippin and Emberton. He canceled these three appointments and returned to this place Friday night. A crowd of 25 people gathered at White Oak Ridge to hear him. There were twenty Republicans voters and five Democrats. Mr. Edwards did not have a single Republican supporter on the ground.

Saturday afternoon, Mr. Sharpe addressed about 150 republican voters at the Court house in Tompkinsville. Saturday being a special sale-day with two or three of the merchants, quite a number of farmers were in town and this was a material help to swell the crowd which heard Mr. Sharpe. He was introduced by Judge W. S. Smith, an Edwards leader in this county. Mr. Sharpe consumed about two hours and one-half in trying to convince the people that Mr. Edwards is the biggest and most powerful Congressman the district ever had. A gentleman who is acquainted with the situation here claims that only 19 Edwards men heard Sharpe's Tompkinsville speech. A large number of democrats were out to hear him and some of them who are in business here closed their business houses and attended the speaking. It is carefully estimated that not over 35 Edwards men found at the speaking appointments. Mr. Sharpe met with a heavy frost in this county and canceled three appointments in order to get into a hotter climate.—Tompkinsville News.

SHALL OLD SOLDIERS BE PERMITTED TO SPEND THEIR LAST DAYS IN PEACE?

The above may seem to be a strange question, yet it is pertinent. Why should not these who when their liberty was threatened; when their rights were being trampled upon; who when the preservation of the union depended upon their loyalty. Why should not those who gave to their country, to the flag, they loved so well the full measure of life's devotion, to the end that if they could not, their posterity might live in a free country. They were soldiers at a time when they tried men's souls to be a soldier, why not let them spend their last days in peace.

We see him whose frail form is now bent, whose voice trembles on his words and who totters as he leans upon his staff, because of his service to his country. We see him in the prime of young manhood when the shades of night were creeping into every nook, at the fireside of his peaceful home with his wife and baby. The father tells with bated breath of the call to arms, and that he must go.

The wife and mother is sorely troubled for it is perhaps the last evening they will spend together. Perhaps the next time she hears of him she will be a widow, and her innocent babe that has just learned to call for papa will be an orphan, but she is brave. One last embrace; one last lingering kiss, and she stands motionless while he walks over to the trundle bed where the baby is sleeping. He raises the tiny hand to his quivering lips and leaves a kiss. The baby stirs, opens its eyes and softly says, "Good night papa" then turns upon its pillow and sleeps again. With tear bedimmed eyes he turns away and steals out through the night to answer the call of duty.

It is not a shame that after these years of toil, hardship and privations, now that they are in the twilight of time for them, that they cannot be allowed to spend their last days in peace. Soon they will hear the last tattoo, that will tell them into that dreamless sleep never again to be aroused by the bugle's sharp re-call. Let us ask again if they will be permitted to spend their last days in peace, or must they serve some politician to make sure that the pension the government has provided for them will not be disturbed. We understand that Charles E. Fuller, of Illinois, introduced and had passed a law, giving old soldiers an increase on their pensions, according to age limit. We further understand that Representative Sherwood, of Ohio, introduced and had passed a bill giving all disabled soldiers a dollar a day pension. Yet our Representative, D. C. Edwards has falsely represented to many of the old soldiers that he got their pensions, or increase of pension, as the case may be, for them. Mr. Edwards you know that it is wrong to make such representations. Why do you do it? Is it to make them think that you performed a duty that you neglected? To prove the assurance that you did make misrepresentations to them we print the following affidavits of two old soldiers.

State of Kentucky ss. County of Whitley

AFFIDAVIT.

The affiant S. G. Morgan states that he is a resident and merchant on Pine Knot, Whitley County Kentucky; that George W. Manning, of Pine Knot, Ky, is a pensioner; that affiant wrote a letter to the Commissioner of Pensions in January 1910 stating to him that the said Manning was now over 75 years of age and was entitled to an increase of his pension from $15 to $20 per month under an act of Congress of Feb. 6th, 1907; that said Commissioner of Pensions after some correspondence and the filling out of the necessary blanks, wrote the said Manning that his had been increased and sent him a certificate to that effect bearing date Feb 25, 1910.

Affiant says that neither he nor the said Manning had any sort of correspondence with Congress man D. C. Edwards about the said increase of pension one way or the other; but that a few days after the said Manning received his certificate of increase from the Commissioner of Pensions, that the said EDWARDS WROTE MANNING, CLAIMING THAT HE HAD SUCCEEDED IN GETTING THE SAID MANNING'S PENSION INCREASED, when as a matter of fact, he had not even been written to about it.

Affiant says that the said Manning cannot write and that affiant did all the correspondence for him regarding the said increase of the said pension.

Signed, S. G. MORGAN.

Subscribed and sworn to before me by S. G. Morgan, this July 19, 1910.

T. J. TRAMMELL, Notary Public.

My Commission expires Jan 29, 1912.

Don C. Edwards calls Caleb Powers, his opponent a thief. Edwards' papers call him a murderer. The bitter Democratic sheet—the Louisville Times, in its issue of February 26th, quotes Edwards with saying this: "The people of the Mountains are going to send to Congress a man who has been convicted of complicity in a Governor's assassination." Did you say this Mr. Edwards? The people want to know. You have called Mr. Powers a thief; do you also call him a murderer?

Without sleep the nervous system soon becomes a wreck, and the healthful activity of all the organs obstructed. Restful, body-building sleep accompanies the use of Dr. Miles' Nerve because it soothes the irritable nerves, and restores nervous energy. When taken a few days according to directions, the most restless sufferer will find sleep natural and healthful. Get a bottle from your druggist. Take it all according to directions, and if it does not benefit he will return your money.

The Park
Palms,

"CAYO COSTA."

Key of the Coast,

THIS IDEAL RESIDENCE AND BUSINESS LOCATION INVITES YOU TO COME AND MAKE YOUR HOME HERE.

The greatest future lies before this delightful spot of any place in the South or Southwest to-day, and bids you come and live while the opportunity to secure a site is within the reach of everyone.

Where Cayo Costa Is:

Cayo Costa is an island situated on the Southern coast of Florida and separated from the main land by Charlotte Harbor.

The northern end of this island forms the southern side of the deep-water entrance or inlet from the Gulf of Mexico into Charlotte Harbor in Lee County, Florida, known as Boca Grande (Spanish for Great Mouth).

Charlotte Harbor and Boca Grande are the finest, largest and deepest natural harbor and channel on the Florida coast.

This has the advantage over all other harbors in the State by reason of its being situated farther south.

It is the most southern point on the Gulf coast of this State at which it is practicable to make substantial and permanent deep-water terminals for railroads, for their steamship connections, as is evidenced by the soundings of this channel and bay, and by the geography and topography of the coast southward, as well as the fact that all railroads already operating there and those proposed and projected leading farthest south on the Gulf coast make this Pass their terminus.

The Seaboard Air Line Railway is completed and in operation to a point near Boca Grande and will be completed to that point before long. The C. H. & N. Railway is completed to Boca Grande Pass, and has been in operation to that point over two years. Both of the above named railroads are north of the pass or inlet. The Atlantic Coast Line Railway, which now terminates at Fort Myers on Caloosahatchee, and which passes within twenty-five miles of Boca Grande, will run a terminal to the south side of the Pass through Cayo Costa in order to keep pace with these other railroads in touching the best harbor and the deepest water.

Boca Grande is recognized as one of the most advantageous harbors in Florida, from which to establish steamship lines to Cuban and Gulf ports, and, in the event of the Panama Canal being completed, and operated, Boca Grande and steamship connections will be directly upon the commercial highway of the world.

For fish and oyster business, for an outlet for phosphate, lumber, naval stores, cattle, fruit and truck shipments from the interior, this place cannot be surpassed and is now being extensively used as such. And upon the land contiguous to and in the same vicinity of Boca Grande is being developed one of the most popular resorts for tourists, health and pleasure seekers at all seasons, sportsmen, tarpon, fishers and yachtsmen in the United States, and one of the most important commercial cities in the South.

This subdivision is contiguous to the Naval and Military reservation of the United States Government, which covers the northern point of the island and is not to be bought. It is a compact block extending across the island from Gulf to Bay, having over half a mile water frontage on each side and, excepting the said reservation, is the deepest land to the pass or inlet.

This small area south of and very near this deep and broad inlet, contiguous to the Gulf on one side and the great Bay on the other, has the best water protection against cold and is the most nearly free from frosts of any spot in the State, and the soil here is well adapted to the growth of coconut, cane and other palm tree and plants and nearly all other tropical ornamental and fruit trees and plants.

These gulf key lands are the most healthful we have in the State, being absolutely free from malaria, and this key is completely surrounded by the purest and deepest of deep-sea water.

This key has over seven miles of most beautiful gulf beach front, which is the finest place in Florida for surf bathing while on the bay side is splendid harbor for any size of boat, as well as the best fishing ground in the State.

The reservation referred to is of the same character of land and soil as the land embraced in this subdivision of Cayo Costa, is a most beautiful natural park, containing several hundred acres, which will remain perpetually public land and, adjoining this property, lands of great value to it.

The acreage of this island is limited to the extent that it will all be used and occupied, for which reason lots here will command high prices in a short time. This is not a fake, nor a cheap backwoods subdivision, but is something that can be resold at a good profit at any time. The owner of this land has sold a number of lots to friends and neighbors who know the value of this property, and is now placing a number of lots upon the market for sale.

We have secured the privilege of selling just 25 lots in this ideal location. The lots are 50x130 ft. each, all fronting on a 60ft. street and running back to a 20 ft. alley.

The price, for a very limited time only, on these lots, is $100.00 per lot, payable $10 cash with the order and $5 per month until all is paid.

Mr. D. W. Clark,
Barboursville, Ky.

Dear Sir:

I have just happened in Mr. Land's office and he said he was going to send you one of the maps of "Cayo Costa"—work of my hands—and also that you desired some of the lots.

I, as Engineer, personally surveyed and platted this fine piece of land and am more than satisfied that you will find the land and location better than told to you.

I was Engineer for the Pine Mountain Iron & Coal Co., at Pineville, for some years, and later was City Engineer of Pineville, and again later with the American Association, at Middlesborough.

I trust you may get up a lot of Kentuckians who will accept of the generous offer extended, and who will build there. I expect to go down next month and want some blue-blooded Kentuckians to be my neighbors.

My home is at Frankfort, Ky., which place of course you are well known.

You can safely recommend this property as FIRST CLASS in every respect, and I have been told from childhood that a Kentuckian's word is good. I hope to see you soon.

Yours truly,
J. H. GRAY.

One-fourth of all money received on the sale of lots will be expended in street improvements of this subdivision for the benefit of investors.

Purchasers will not be required to pay taxes until after the expiration of two years from date of application for lots.

Cash purchases will be discounted five per cent.

No interest will be charged on deferred payments.

Warranty deed will be delivered to purchaser with an abstract of title showing clear and unincumbered title at the time final payment for purchase is made. If interested apply to

THE GLIDER SWING

This Swing is without doubt the best of its type on the market. All working parts are of steel, making it perfectly noiseless and easily operated. It is very rigid and substantial. No rollers or rockers to wear and get out of order. It is a perfect level glide, and is without an equal.

The WINONA four passenger Durick Swing, the WINONA two passenger Chain Swing, and the WINONA Mission Swing are all leaders. The finest quality; price right. Ask your dealer to show you the line of swings manufactured by us. At a glance you will realize their superiority over other makes. If your dealer does not handle our swings, write direct to us for the name and address of a nearby dealer who does handle our goods. It certainly will pay you for your trouble, as you should purchase the best when it costs you no more.
